ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, January 2.—Gen. Sherman has received a letter from Sheridan, dated Fort Cobb, December 19th, noting his arrival at that post the day previous with Gen. Custer's regiment, the 9th Cavalry, and ten companies of the 10th Kansas Cavalry, in all about 1500 men. Sheridan says he spent one day on Custar's battle field, and found the bodies of Maj. Elliott and sixteen soldiers, and also the bodies of Mrs. Blinn and child. Mrs. Blinn had been shot through the forehead, and the child's brains dashed out against a tree. Gen. Sheridan followed an Indian trail down the Washita for seventy-six miles, when he came to a camp of Kiowas, who met him with a letter from Gen. Hazen, which declared them to be friendly. Sheridan required the Indians to accompany him to Fort Cobb, but discovered, while traveling to that point, that they were sending their families to the Washita mountains, being suspicious that they were attempting to deceive him. He took Satanta and Lone Wolf and notified them that he would hold them as hostages, and that if all the Kiowas did not come to Fort Cobb he would hang them. Sheridan says that the Indians realize now for the first time that winter will not compel us to make truce with them, and adds that "the Kiowas have been engaged in the war all the time, and have been playing fast and loose. They have attempted to brow-beat Gen. Hazen since he came to Fort Cobb, but I will take the starch out of them before I leave them."

The Cheyennes, Arrapahoes and one band of the Comanches are now at the Washita mountains.

Gen. Sheridan, after a consultation with Gen. Hazen, proposes that when the Kiowas come in to punish those who are known to have been concerned in personal acts of murder. He will send Black Kettle's sister out to the Cheyennes, Arrapahoes and Comanches, to get them to come in and submit to a like treatment; and if they refuse to come in, he will carry on the war against them in the Washita mountains. He will have with Gen. Hazen a sufficient force to enable him to control the Indians now at Fort Cobb, and such others as may come in there.

During the march from Camp Supply, the weather and snow was very severe, but the health of the command was good, only two men of the 7th Cavalry and six of the 19th Kansas being sick.

In a private letter one day later, Gen. Sheridan says that the Kiowas are coming in and the Cheyennes have been very humble since their punishment by Gen. Custar, and that he has no doubt that the Arrapahoes will come in also and surrender and abide by his terms, after which he has no fears of their renewing hostilities.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, January 2.—The Herald's special, dated Queen's Hotel, London, January 1, says Mr. Burlingame and Lord Clarendon, the new British Foreign Minister, had an interview to-day, when they agreed upon the principles for the future British policy to be adopted toward China. Lord Clarendon, in renewing his former conversation, fully acknowledged the propriety and justice of the several points which Mr. Burlingame had advanced in reference to the policy which he deemed desirable that England should pursue. Mr. Burlingame held that the objects of the present mission showed evident signs of progress, and by no means evinced a retrograde disposition on the part of the Chinese Government. He also deprecates the practice of the Western powers in using an unfriendly pressure to introduce a new system and new ideas among a people whose knowledge of foreign nations was of recent origin, and who were nurtured under a traditional system, to which they were accustomed, and attached to such repressive policy, would tend to revolutionize and repress progress, whereas the Chinese Government fully admitted the necessity of progress, and desired to encourage it gradually, without a sudden shock to the feelings, passions, or prejudices of the people. Lord Clarendon in his reply fully admitted that the Chinese were entitled to forbearances from foreign nations, and assured Mr. Burlingame that England did not desire or intend to apply an unfriendly pressure in order to induce China to advance more rapidly in her intercourse with foreign nations than was consistent with the safety and feelings of the Chinese people. The following articles were then agreed to between Lord Clarendon and Mr. Burlingame: First—That it is necessary to observe existing treaty stipulations. Second—That all negotiations should be conducted with the central government, and not with local authorities. Third—That with the inauguration of war, disputes should be referred to the home governments. Lord Clarendon has issued instructions to the British agents in China to act in accordance with the spirit and with the objects above explained, and, moreover, to caution British subjects to pay due respect not only to the laws of China, but also to respect the usages and feelings of the Chinese people. These points settled, the general principles of the American treaty were discussed. Lord Clarendon considered them kindly, and argued that they should form the subject of future negotiations. Having established the basis for the British policy, Mr. Burlingame proceeds to Paris to-morrow and returns to England on the reassembling of Parliament to conclude details according to the principles agreed upon, and to complete the objects of his mission.

The Herald's special, dated Madrid, January 1, says Gen. Caballero De Rodas, after having issued a proclamation to the insurgents at Malaga to throw their arms down, and upon their refusing to submit, the General declared the place in a state of siege. The town was then attacked by the Government troops. The insurgents were fought in the streets and defeated, when Caballero succeeded in restoring order.

Internal Revenue Supervisor Dutcha is reported to have removed Collector O'Callaghan. This will open the question as to whether a Collector can be kept in place contrary to the orders of the Internal Revenue Commissioner. It is the first case of the kind.

The storm here which ceased at midnight last night was the most severe of the season, about three inches of hail having fallen. Western and Eastern railroad travel is much impeded. In New England the storm was very severe, about a foot of snow having fallen in those States, and it is still snowing to-day in Boston and Albany, with the snow already fifteen inches deep on a level.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, January 2.—The details of the insurrection at Malaga state that after a sharp engagement in the streets Gen. DeRoda succeeded in routing the rebels and restoring order. The ironclads in the harbor acted in concert with DeRoda by pouring a galling fire into the ranks of the insurgents. The country is now entirely tranquil.

PARIS, January 2.—The Conference will be composed of the Ambassadors to France from the various powers. It will be presided over by M. Laritle, the new French Foreign Secretary. The time for holding it is not yet decided upon.

It is now more than likely that both the Turkish and Grecian governments will participate in the proceedings of the proposed conference.

It is given out to-day that Alexander Rice Ranequey, a noted Grecian poet, will represent Greece, and Fuad Pacha, the Turkish government.

Late telegrams from Hong Kong confirm the re establishment of the Mikado at Jeddo.

The Express has an article to-day on the proposed international yacht race. It proposes that the yacht owners of Europe, who have vessels of equal tonnage with the Dauntless, accept Mr. Bennett's challenge.

The Journal states that at his New Year's reception the Emperor told Senor De La Z ga, the Spanish Envoy, to convey his Government the warmest wishes both of himself personally and of France, for the happiness and prosperity of Spain.

GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, January 2.—A dispatch from Savannah says that the troubles in Ogeechee continue but nothing transpired yesterday. The whites are organizing to put down lawlessness.

SAVANNAH, December 31.—The Sheriff and two assistants went to Hayward's plantation, on the Ogeechee river, a few miles from the city to arrest seventeen negroes charged with shooting the watchman on the plantation and carrying off the crops of planters. They made five arrests. At station Number 1, on the Atlantic and Gulf Railroad, they were surrounded by about one hundred armed negroes, who rescued the prisoners and disarmed and robbed the Sheriff and destroyed the warrants, threatening to kill him if he ever served legal process again in that vicinity. The negroes then separated into squads and marched back to the plantations, avowing that they would have the heart's blood of every white man on Ogeechee river, saying the war had commenced. One negro watchman is supposed to be murdered. Two whites were badly hurt.

All the white men were obliged to flee to the city to save their lives. The women and children are in the hands of the mob and have been carried off into the woods. Great excitement exists in the community, and the Sheriff, with a posse of three or four hundred citizens, will leave at daybreak to-morrow to rescue the women and children. The military decline to interfere until the power of the civil authorities for preserving order is exhausted.

A public meeting was held at the Courthouse to-day, and affairs were discussed by Gen. Jackson and others. The meeting adjourned till to-morrow noon, to decide upon what course to pursue.

—Some Charlestonians are building a grand hotel at Aiken, S. C., as a winter refuge for Northern invalids.

THE TENNESSEE RIVER.

Call for a River Improvement Convention.

Gov. Brownlow, and the Governors of Alabama, Kentucky, Georgia, Iowa and Missouri Recommend it.

The earnest and particular attention of the citizens of Memphis, of West Tennessee, and especially of the members of the Chamber of Commerce of our city, is called to the following, endorsed and promulgated by Governor Brownlow and the Governors of other States. We hope that a delegation from our city will attend this Convention and assist in the development of the scheme that will by such body be adopted:

STATE OF TENNESSEE,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
NASHVILLE, January 1, 1869.

WHEREAS, I have received from the Executive Committee appointed by the Tennessee River Improvement Convention, which met at Chattanooga, Tenn., on the 18th day of March, 1868, a communication in the words and figures following, to-wit:

"ROOMS EX. COM. TENN. RIVER IMPROV'T,
"CHATTANOOGA, TENN., NOV. 24, 1868.

"To His Excellency, Wm. G. Brownlow, Governor of Tennessee:

"At the Convention of Delegates representing the people of the Valley of the Tennessee River, held in Chattanooga, March 18, 1868, among others, the following resolutions were adopted:

"'Resolved, That the interests of the people of the Tennessee Valley require that the Tennessee River, from its mouth to the head of navigation, should be cleared of all obstructions, and the said river remain free from all tolls and tributes.

"'Resolved, That we deem the same a matter of national interest, and that, in the opinion of this Convention, it is the duty and should be the policy of the Government of the United States to furnish the necessary means.'

"By another resolution a Committee was appointed for and on behalf of the Convention to prepare and draft a memorial to the Congress of the United States, setting forth the purposes of that Convention, and urging a speedy action of Congress to aid in its objects. A memorial was accordingly drafted, extensively circulated in the Tennessee Valley for signatures, and presented to the 40th Congress, a copy of which is herewith presented.

"The 40th Congress, after the reception of the report of the survey of the Tennessee river, made, under an Act of the 39th Congress, in the low water season of 1867-8, influenced by the representations of this memorial and other manifestations of public opinion in favor of this measure, appropriated $85,000 to the improvement of the Tennessee, to be expended under the direction of Bvt. Maj. Gen. Weitzel, Maj. U. S. Engineers. This was directed by him to be applied to the removal of the obstructions in the upper river, known as Ross' Bar, the Tumbling Shoals, Buck, Boiling Pot, Gunter's Bar, etc., and a number of minor obstructions between Florence, Ala., and Paducah, Ky., making the navigation of the river practically unobstructed at ordinary stages, except at Muscle Shoals.

"Immediate action on the part of the people is now required, in order that there be no cessation in the work now going on, from the failure by Congress to provide the means to begin at once the repair and completion of the canal projected and partially built around the Muscle Shoals in 1833; as such failure would result not only in seriously retarding the development of the resources of these States, but the work already in progress under previous appropriations will be of little value unless the two sections of the river, embracing 257 miles of navigation below the Shoals and 368 miles above them to Knoxville, with a high water navigation in addition, upon its tributaries, of not less than 1000 miles, cease to be divided by an impassable barrier at Muscle Shoals. According to the census of 1860 there were expended upon the canal at Muscle Shoals, in 1838, $1,400,000, but this was insufficient to build a canal completely around the Shoals, and there being impassable obstacles below the canal as constructed, it was never used, and no return has been or can be received from the money expended upon it, until the entire work has been completed. The cause of the failure of the people to urge the matter upon Congress at the time that the work was suspended, was, the belief that the line of railroad eastward from Memphis, via Chattanooga to Lynchburg, then projected, would supply the necessities of the country; but since the completion of that line, and especially since the partial development of the mineral resources of the country, experience has demonstrated to them, as it has to all others in like circumstances, that no development of either mining, manufacturing, or even of agricultural interests, can be attained until cheap and constant water transportation for their products can be had.

"The report of the survey authorized by the 39th Congress shows the practicability of constructing a canal completely around the Muscle Shoals, and that the portion previously built is in good repair, and can be utilized in the present enterprise, while the cost will be but small in comparison with the benefits to be derived from the development of commerce, agriculture, mining and manufactures consequent thereupon. The increased revenue from the augmented productive capacity of this valley will, in a few years repay to the Government, with interest, the appropriations now demanded for the improvement of the river.

"At the Convention of delegates of the people of the Tennessee Valley, heretofore mentioned, representing the States of Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi and North Carolina, we, W. P. Rathburn, J. L. Divine, T. R. Stanley, J. W. James, P. D. Sims, R. K. Byrd and Tomlinson Fort, were appointed an Executive Committee to represent the people of these States in this behalf, with full discretionary power to take any action which, in our judgment, might best tend to promote the improvement of the Tennessee river.

"In the exercise of this discretionary power, we have thought that a convention of delegates from the States drained by the Tennessee river, as well as from those whose commercial relations are likely to be favorably affected by the proposed improvements, which convention should set forth the great benefits to accrue to the whole country from such a measure, and the imperative necessity of the adoption of such a course by Congress, to enable these States to recuperate from the desolation of war, would have great weight with Congress.

"And we would, therefore, respectfully request your Excellency, in concert with the Governors of Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and other States, to issue a call, reciting this communication, for a convention of delegates from these states, to be held at Chattanooga, Tenn., on Wednesday, the 24th day of February, 1869, for the sole purpose of urging upon Congress the necessity of making such appropriations from time to time as the estimate of the United States Engineer in charge of the work may call for, until the Muscle Shoals are no longer an obstacle to the commerce of the country.

"And we would further respectfully recommend, that the cities, counties, and business associates of the country, be invited to send to this Convention two delegates each.

Executive Committee Tennessee River Improvement.

Now, therefore, I, Wm. G. Brownlow, Governor of the State of Tennessee, together with the Governors of other States, uniting in this call, and whose signatures are subscribed hereto, do hereby give notice, that at the city of Chattanooga, on the 24th day of February, A. D. 1869, a Convention will be held for the purposes aloue which are expressed in the foregoing communication.

We, the Governors aforesaid, most earnestly recommend that the cities, villages and counties of the Tennessee Valley, and the country adjacent thereto, the Boards of Trade and other business associations throughout the country, be represented in the Convention. The importance of providing free transportation by water for the vast products of the country drained by the Tennessee River cannot be overestimated.

To the people of the whole South and West, to the entire country, the measure is of the greatest importance, and as a commercial matter an imperative necessity. A consultation of representative men cannot fail to advance it.

RUFUS B. BULLOCK,
Governor of Georgia.
SAM'L MERRILL,
Gov'rnor of Iowa.
THOS. C. FLETCHER,
Governor of Missouri.
W. G. BROWNLOW,
Governor of Tennessee.
WM. H SMITH,
Governor of Alabama.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1869

THE LITTLE ROCK RAILROAD.

We have already shown the folly of such a trade for Little Rock Railroad Bonds, as is contemplated between the city and certain parties representing the First National Bank. As the matter is likely to come up in secret session to-day, we desire respectfully to remind members of the Board of Aldermen of their duty in the premises; and that is, so far as we can gather it from the public, that other provision for the payment of the indebtedness of the city held by that bank be made, and that under no circumstances shall they part with the city's ownership in so valuable a franchise.

The people of Memphis are becoming justly alarmed at the, of late, frequent propositions of purchase of their railroad stocks. They have just witnessed the defeat of a scheme, it is believed, by the same parties, for the ownership of their stock in the Mississippi & Tennessee, and intelligent as they have become as to the objects of the ring (in their search after railroad monopoly) they demand of their representatives that this scheme for the purchase of the Little Rock Railroad (for that is just what is involved) shall be promptly voted under the table, on Tuesday night, as too absurd for even contemplation by business men. The people of Memphis know, as well as the members of the ring, that the Little Rock Railroad will be, when finished, the most important railroad running into Memphis; they know that with the branches in every direction contemplated from it, it will bring this city in connection with a country the most productive in the world, and that is now sealed to this or any other remunerative market for want of quick communication, and some parts of it for want of any communication at all; they know this, and that when accomplished, Memphis will receive an impetus greater than she has yet received from all the railroads now pouring wealth into her lap. They are therefore desirous that the city, as a corporate body, shall continue to exercise a controlling influence in its management, and to that end, retain her stock at whatever expense or cost. They remember how, with the property of the city pledged for the payment of the interest on the bonds of this Little Rock Railroad, that corporation was fostered and encouraged, even when war was raging, and every interest in the country was unsettled. What they have paid so dear for, they are unwilling to part with; and especially at such a sacrifice as involves their loss of all control in the affairs of it, and the loss of their interest in $2 700,000 worth of bonds, money and debts shortly to be realized in such proportion as will put the Company away up and beyond the contingency of failure. Under such circumstances as these it would amount to almost criminality, the people think, to part with dearly purchased rights in a franchise the most important ever participated in by them. But they do not see any pressing emergency for such a course and are therefore more hostile to it. If, as was shown in our commercial column, but part (and a very small part) of the city's indebtedness is paid by the transfer of these bonds, and at such a ruinous rate, we continue to liquidate what remains, the question occurs, what will the city have left when she gets through. In other words, if Memphis continues to pay at the rate of $850,000 for every $78,000 she owes, where will the public squares, the engine-houses, market-houses, and other property be in a short time? Why, in the hands of just such rings as that which is hungering and thirsting for her railroad bonds, and has been for some time past. But we hope that common sense will prevail in the City Council, and that a unanimous vote in the negative will, to-morrow night, put a finish upon these secret plottings for the railroad stock of the city: that the proposition of the ring will be laid upon the table, and the Board thus plainly vindicate its character for judgment and integrity.

THE SUN.

The Sun, under the management of Col. L. J. DUPREE, yesterday made its appearance in small proportions, but neat garb, its columns filled with such spicy and felicitous paragraphs as its racy and experienced editorial writer knows how to compose. We welcome the Sun, and hope for its proprietors and editors the success they know how to achieve and their abilities will deserve.

JOURNALISTIC CHANGE.

We learn from the Knoxville Press and Herald of Saturday that Gov. BROWNLOW has sold his interest in the Knoxville Whig to a stock company of some five or six citizens of Knoxville. It is also stated that Rev. T. H. PEARNE is to be the editor in chief under the new regime.

EFFORTS are being made to bring JOHN H. SURRATT into court again. Considering, says the Chicago Times, that the circumstances attendant upon his discharge under the former proceedings, his conviction under a new indictment cannot reasonably be expected. It would appear, however, that those who hung the mother cannot bear to abandon the hope of hanging the son.

THE KNOXVILLE Press and Herald of Saturday announces the death, the previous night at 10 o'clock, of Gen. JOHN CROZIER RAMSEY, and says that he "had been quite ill for some ten days, though it was not until yesterday that the progress of his disease—inflammation of the stomach and bowels—had so developed itself as to give his friends reason to expect so early or so sad a termination."

TENNESSEE RIVER.

An enterprise of great magnitude and importance is about to command general public attention, and will soon be pressed upon Congress, so well backed, that it must receive attention there. A memorial, signed by a large number of leading citizens of Tennessee, praying an appropriation of $1,500,000, for the improvement of the Tennessee river, but chiefly for the construction of a canal and necessary appurtenances around the Muscle Shoals, was presented in both Houses of Congress last month. It was ordered to be printed and laid upon the table until the committees should be organized. This memorial will be supported by a resolution of the same import by the Alabama Legislature, by instructions from the Georgia Legislature to their delegates to use their best efforts to the same end, by the influence of the Executive Committee appointed by the Tennessee River Improvement Convention, by the recommendation of the Chairman of the Prairie Du Chien Convention for the improvement of the Fox and Wisconsin rivers, which met in November last, by the recent Norfolk Convention, by the recommendation of the Convention that met in St. Louis a few days ago, and lastly by the National Board of Trade, recently in session in Cincinnati, the ablest and most influential body of men of the kind in the country.

Of the intrinsic merits of a work which would keep the Tennessee navigable the year round and open fully to commerce the vast country drained by it, and of the vastly important results to Tennessee of such a work, it is unnecessary to speak in special terms here. It will be seen by the foregoing, and by the circular on our first page, that the proposition receives ample support, of the highest character and influence, and we trust that those Congressmen who have proclaimed their desire to restore the South to peace and more than its former prosperity, will not neglect this opportunity to attest the sincerity of their professions.

GEO. R. RUTTER.

There can be no doubt that it is the intention of SPENCE, who is the instigator, it is alleged, of the malicious prosecutions and persecutions of RUTTER, to secure that person in Nashville, where, under the pressure that the ring would bring to bear upon him, he would be silenced as to what he has threatened to give to the public concerning the disappearance of the School Fund. This must not be permitted, if possible to prevent it: and as Mr. RUTTER will have to go to Nashville, there to answer the indictment of the Grand Jury, we suggest that now is as good a time as any for him to give to the public all that he can of information as to his own manipulation by the ring and the modus operandi of the taking off of the "sacred fund." Mr. RUTTER should consult his able counsel, and if they consent, promptly and at once publish all the facts and documents in his possession.

HATCHIE RIVER.

DOING HIS BEST.—We learn that the President of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad has been to Nashville doing his level best to defeat the bill already introduced for the reopening of Hatchie river to steamboat navigation, and that F. S. Richards, of Shelby, opposes the bill. We hope our cotemporaries in Memphis will hoop up these monopolists, and make them feel what it is to cripple the trade of Memphis to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars for the sake of turning into the pockets of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad Company the freight and passenger money that would rightfully belong to those who run boats in the Hatchie river trade.

We take the above from the Bolivar Bulletin of Saturday, and find room for it in our columns that it may more prominently be brought to the attention of Mr. WOODRUFF, and especially of Mr. RICHARDS, for denial. The opening of Hatchie river is essential to the prosperity of the people residing along its banks, and will be profitable to the mercantile community of Memphis. For these reasons, Mr. RICHARDS should go for the bill, and so work in the interests of the people.

ACCORDING to the biennial report of the State Treasurer, the principal of the public debt of the State of Illinois has, within the last two years, been reduced by the sum of $2,656,889, leaving the amount outstanding on December 1, 1868, at $5,988,453. The receipts for the two years ending November 30, 1868, were $6,335,596, and the disbursements $6,302,727, with a balance in the Treasury of $1,447,041. The revenues derived from the Illinois Central Railroad for the two years amounted to $860,185. The debt, the interest on which is payable in gold in London, amounts to $1,268,187, and the Treasurer recommends the investment of the accumulating balance in United States bonds, and the appropriation of the gold interest to liquidate the claims of the foreign loan-holders, instead of being obliged to expend $68,887 for exchange, as was required in 1867 and 1868.

THE Macon (Ga.) Telegraph says "a friend in Washington drops us a letter on the 26th, in which he says: 'I have been here two days, and find Georgia affairs in a muddle, though we have a good many friends. Still the result is very doubtful. The Reconstruction Committee are to report immediately on the assembling of Congress, and action will be taken. I think, before the meeting of our Legislature, on the 13th of January.'"

IT is estimated that the Masonic order, at present, contains about 1,250,000 members. Of this number 150,000 are in England, 100,000 in Scotland, and 50,000 in Ireland. There are about 600,000 on the continent of Europe, 300,000 in the United States, and 50,000 in other parts of the world. In England there are two or three thousand persons initiated every year, and the Masonic body is said to be everywhere increasing.

THE Captain-General of Cuba is still endeavoring to dwarf the successes of the patriots in that island. Each revolutionary triumph should be doubled from the cable report—each Government advantage halved, if an approach to the truth is desired.

THERE is some talk of annexing Cuba to Mexico. This is only a roundabout way of turning it over to the United States. The future of Mexico, as well as of Canada, is that of States of the great Yankee Republic.

The Apaches murdered a man in Piana county and stole a number of cattle. The troops succeeded in capturing the cattle. The Piana Indians committed several outrages near Marcopa mills. Gen. Alexander settled the matter without resort to arms. The Pamas are numerous. Trouble with them is not to be avoided. No flour here. A cable dispatch to the Herald, dated Madrid 2d inst., says several dispatches from Malaga yesterday report that the insurgents there fired on a boat of the American steamer Swaratara while conveying an American family to the ship Serrons, and expressed much regret at the act, and assured the United States Minister that the guilty would be punished. A short time afterward the troops attacked the insurgents in the streets, carried three barricades, and dispersed the rebels with slight loss.

A DISTINGUISHED Methodist Minister and prominent Temperance Lecturer once remarked that go where he would, from one end of the country to the other, he hardly ever failed to find Plantation Bitters, and while he condemned the practice of using these Bitters too freely, he could not conscientiously say that he would discard them from the side-board, for he himself had experienced beneficial results from their use, and that, from a long and close observation, he was convinced that when used moderately, and as a medicine exclusively, they were all that was recommended. At the same time he warned his hearers not to pull the cork too often, for they were far too pleasant a tonic to trifle with.

ARKANSAS.

Terrible News from Marion

Five Citizens Murdered.

Meeting of Refugees in Memphis.

A Meeting to be Held in Mound City.

A gentleman just from the "dark and bloody ground" across the river, furnishes us, in terms brief and startling, with information from the den of thieves and murderers in Marion which shows they will not stop short of the utmost extremes in the villainies and outrages which they are visiting upon a defenceless people.

The statement to us is to the effect that for five successive nights they have taken from his place of confinement in the jail one of the citizens they hold prisoners, and, after the mockery of some sort of trial, shot him to death without the least delay or time for preparation to meet the awful change from time to eternity. Our informant was able to give the names of but two of these unfortunate victims—Dr. McKenzie and Mr. John Tharpe. The other three are probably well known if not prominent citizens, but the difficulty of obtaining information from a place jealously guarded from the intrusion of any but the friends and abettors of the miscreants in possession, and the watch they place upon the movements of all who are not of them, prevented our informant from obtaining the names of the others.

Comment upon this red-handed atrocity is unnecessary. Every man can frame, in his own mind, the execrations which such merciless deeds inspire. But the question necessarily arises: When and where is this saturnalia of outrage and murder in our sister State to stop? Far and wide the black fiends are desolating the country round about Marion, and from other parts of the country which have been turned over to them to run riot in, the same story comes—they lay waste everything before them and murder every man they can lay hands on if it so please them. At latest accounts a body of Clayton's militia had taken possession of Jacksonport, a town on White river, seventy-six miles above Augusta. Of their doings there we have yet no account, but of course none is needed. Riot and plunder, destruction of property, insult and outrage, followed by murder, is the programme wherever they go, and it is faithfully carried out.

Below will be found the proceedings of a meeting held by Arkansas refugees in this city, and a call for a meeting in Mound City (which we will state, for the benefit of the distant reader) is on the other side of the river and from three to five miles from Marion. The object of the meeting is stated in the call:

At a meeting of the refugees from Arkansas, held at the office of Brown & Lyle, on the third instant, Col. D. C. Cross, of Cross county, Arkansas, was elected chairman, and B. B. Eskridge, Esq., of Crittenden county, was elected secretary.

The chairman stated the object of the meeting to be for consultation upon the situation in Arkansas, and to devise peaceable means for the restoration of law and order in that State.

After considerable discussion, it was resolved to hold a meeting at Mound City, Arkansas, on next Tuesday, and the chairman was directed to call said meeting by advertisement in the city papers.

Upon motion, Col. D. C. Cross was appointed a committee to request Gen. Gordon Granger and such other United States officers as may be in the city to attend the meeting.

The meeting was a large one and, was attended by the very best citizens of Arkansas, large numbers of whom are now in the city, having fled from the militia.

The papers of the city were requested to publish the proceedings, and the meeting then adjourned, to meet at Mound City on the 5th instant.

D. C. CROSS, Chairman.
B. B. ESKRIDGE, Secretary.

CALL FOR A MEETING OF REFUGEES. At a meeting of the refugees from Arkansas, about two hundred in number, held in Memphis on the 3d, it was resolved to hold a public meeting at Mound City, Crittenden county, Ark., at 12 m., on Tuesday, the 5th day of January, to take into consideration the state of affairs in Arkansas, and particularly in Crittenden county, and to appoint delegates to the Convention to be held at Little Rock on the 8th inst. All persons favorable to the re-establishment of law and order are respectfully invited to attend.

THE THIRD WARD NOMINEE

MEMPHIS, January 3, 1869.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Gentlemen: As the near approach of the day of election for civil officers draws nigh, it may naturally be supposed that the friends of the principal nominees should awake to the consciousness that the time for setting forth the character and accomplishments of their favorites should give full vent to their feelings and reason for supporting them. Mr. Durff, for instance, nominee in the Third ward, is a young man of no mean accomplishments, industrious and persevering; and of all those who have stood up for the cause of genuine Democracy during the past seven years, I can testify, without fear of contradiction, that Mr. Durff has been among the most uncompromising and steadfast. In the city of Cairo while one of the editors and proprietors of the Democrat, he proved himself to be the most faithful friend the workingman ever had in that region. His zeal was unflagging, his purse-strings never drawn when an appeal for aid was made to him, and the result in the end proved that he brought upon himself pecuniary ruin, while at the same time he created myriads of friends and a name for charity that will not be forgotten in that locality during the present generation. At the time to which I refer he lost a fortune of some fifteen thousand dollars, and this disaster was the empty recompense he received for his liberality to the poor and needy, and faithful to the Democracy. The man who would pawn his wife's jewelry and deny himself of ordinary comforts for the purpose of relieving the widow and the orphan, from whom he never could expect the least reward, could not possibly be a worshipper of Mammon, and I am of opinion that when the enlightened and charitable who compose the greater bulk of the voting population of the Third Ward, consider the ability and accomplishments of the gentleman of whom I have the honor to speak, they will not for a moment hesitate as to whom they will grant their suffrage.

Yours, in the light of labor,

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Who Comprise it—Who are Members of the Finance Committee.

MEMPHIS, January 3, 1869.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Your paper is taking such a great interest in railroad matters, as it does in everything that pertains to the welfare of our city, that it is attracting towards it all in this community who have taken the proper view of the issue involved. Your Sunday morning paper contains the startling announcement that a proposition is being made in our Board of Alderman to sell, for 12c on the dollar, the city's stock in the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad. If such a proposition is to be seriously entertained, would it not be well to remind your readers who this Board is composed of? Give us their names, especially those of the Finance Committee. CITIZEN.

In answer to the request of our correspondent we publish the names of the members of the present Board of Mayor and Aldermen, as follows: Mayor: Hon. J. W. Leftwich; Aldermen: John Glancy, H. E. Goodleit, Johnson, Joyce, Magevney, Black, Brown, Cartwright, Holst, O'Donnell, Cicalla, Ruffin, Rumer, Lemon, Passmore, Moffitt, McDavitt, Ellis, Swayne and Wright. The Finance Committee are, McDavitt, Ruffin, Magevney, Brown, Cicalla and Wright.

SHELBY COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Regular Meeting at White's Station.

EUDORA CHURCH, WHITE'S STATION, January 2, 1869.

Shelby County Agricultural Society met in regular session, and in the absence of the President (detained by official business in the city), George C. Haines, first Vice-President, presided. W. H. Lake, Secretary, present.

A. B. Haynes, from Committee to confer with the Committee of the "Memphis Agricultural and Mechanical Association of the City of Memphis," in regard to fusion of the two Societies, reported that at present it was impracticable to do so. Report received and Committee discharged.

No regular report from the Committee on Charter for new Association, and on amendments to Constitution and By-Laws.

Mr. Goodleit, former Treasurer of the Society, and R. D. Goodwyn, Treasurer, each made written reports, which were received and adopted. On motion of A. B. Haynes the same were ordered to be spread upon the minutes.

By request, Maj Sykes addressed the meeting. He spoke by way of suggestion and eliciting information of the subject of new charter, raising hogs, clover, etc.

Capt. A. B. Haynes gave a highly interesting and suggestive talk on the subject of hog raising, and illustrated its thorough practicability at present by his own experience since the war. Commencing since the war with one sow and three sow pigs, running on a 400 acre woodland inclosure, he this year had already killed eight at an average weight of 175 pounds. Had thirteen up to kill soon, which would average 190 pounds, and there were five or six more of the same kind; had twenty-three sows, besides which had with them 125 pigs. And gave it as his opinion if all would go to hog-raising as before the war so as to have the stealage divided among many instead of all being upon the few, all would be well again.

On motion of R. D. Goodwyn it was ordered that the Chairman of the Executive Committee audit all accounts, and none others be paid by the Treasurer.

The motion of R. D. Goodwyn, made at a former meeting, to hold regular meetings at Memphis, and laid over to be considered at this, came up and was voted down, there being but one vote cast for it—chair not voting.

On motion of N. C. Perkins, that by request of the President, this meeting adjourn to meet at the Circuit Court-room, on Tuesday next at 12 m.

After being amended by vote, on motion of R. D. Goodwyn to change to Monday, passed, and the society adjourned to meet there Monday, at 12 m.

W. H. LAKE, Secretary.

THE SUN AND THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The Sun of the Bulletin, in its initial number, seeks to make capital out of the refusal of the Associated Press of Memphis to extend to it gratuitously what is worth to the association just $6040; and the editor says that "if any of his friends in the association had apprised him of their rights at an earlier date, he would have less reason to disapprove their action." To this we have to reply on the part of the Association, that we waited to be consulted in the matter by the proprietors of the Sun, and were not presumed even to know of the birth of the Sun from the Bulletin until the fact was announced by the accouchere who assisted at the affair. As to remarks about the Bulletin making gratuities, we have only to remind the Sun that the APPEAL was in existence before the Bulletin, and therefore, if anything, the boot was on the other leg. After the war the Bulletin and the Argus were joined by the Commercial, and formed the associated press, to which they promptly admitted the Avalanche and the APPEAL upon their revival, on account of the fact that they were Memphis papers and really members of the Association in suspense. They could, however, according to usage, have been charged for the whole time elapsing between the revival of the Association after the war and their resumption of publication. That these papers were restored to their rights in the Association gratuitously does not argue that a new paper like the Sun, or any other, shall be admitted to free participation in what now costs the press of Memphis more than $7000 per annum, without any recompense to the association for its former outlay. For its course in this matter the Press Association of Memphis finds ample justification in the course of the press of Louisville, St. Louis, Cincinnati and New York, and does not fear any course or purpose the Sun may have in view in the premises.

THE ELMWOOD COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE for young gentlemen and boys, located near the end of the Street Railroad, will resume its session on Monday, January 11, 1868. Prof. T. J. Norcom, a skillful and popular instructor for ten years in Memphis, who established this institution in 1858, and conducted it successfully for many years, will resume the care of it; and he is so well known as an accomplished scholar, thorough teacher, and successful disciplinarian, that we congratulate our young friends on his return to the city. Students from the city are charged only half fare on the Street Railroad, and the ride in bad weather, or walk in good weather, is the best gymnastic exercise they could take. 4t

THE "Steam Man" that has been so much spoken of, wondered at, and so closely described by Northern papers, has at length arrived. He can be seen Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, at No 293 Main street. The Steam Man is a curiosity and no doubt will be extensively visited.

CANE PRESENTATION.—We were present on Friday at a pleasant little scene in the office of Mr. Dowdy, 264 Front street. The occasion was the presentation, by a number of leading cotton merchants, of a splendid gold-headed cane to Mr. W. F. Kelly, in token of their high appreciation of his faithful services during the past year as the letter-carrier. Mr. Dowdy made a neat presentation speech, and Mr. Kelly replied in appropriate terms. Something else accompanied the cane, but it was in an envelope, and we don't know what it was. On entering the room we have noticed a lot of suspicious looking bottles and tumblers, and—the reader can imagine what followed.

A Universal Remedy.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" for coughs, colds and bronchial affections, now stands the first in public favor and confidence; this result has been acquired by a test of many years. Its merits and extensive use have caused the Troches to be counterfeited, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against worthless imitations.

WOLFE'S
Schiedam Schnapps.

THE above Medicinal Beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at his distillery, in Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use.

It is now some twenty years since the proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over three thousand letters from physicians, indorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper-berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effect produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South, and Southwest are peculiarly liable—the SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS will be found absolutely infallible; while in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in case, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

Four Plantations for

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, January 2, 1869.

FINANCE.

The first business day of the new year was characterized by very large offerings of cotton bills. This was anticipated during the early part of next week, but hardly to-day. Rates are firm and the demand is steady. We quote as follows:

	Buying.	Selling per.
New England	¾% dis.	"
New York	¾% dis.	"
St. Louis	¾ "	"
Cincinnati	½ "	"
Louisville	½ "	"
New Orleans	½ "	¾@¾32 $1000 p'm

We can learn of no change in local scrips since our last. There is of course less demand in every way, but holders are not very anxious to sell, as it is thought that rigid measures will be adopted to collect all back taxes, and in this way the demand will again become active. City Scrip is offered at 80 quite liberally, but our brokers are provided, and are not disposed to tie up their currency in anticipation of any advance in the distant future.

County Warrants are firm, but outside of a few speculators we learn of no demand. The dreaded season has arrived when the Board of County Commissioners are expected to issue largely, and without the "ring," which has been operating so largely in this paper, is prepared to buy liberally, it is feared that warrants may decline, at least temporarily. Several of our largest (we were going to say tax payers) property owners have as yet not paid one cent of their county or State taxes. What measures will be adopted to make them do so we do not know; but as recent enactments of the Legislature have thrown around tax titles such safeguards as cannot easily be set aside, it is freely intimated upon the streets that the tax can be secured.

Police Scrip is quiet. Dealers do not want to buy at present. We quote nominally 90@92½ buying. Selling at 95c.

We have no change to report in School Scrip.

Gold in New York opened to-day at 134¼, and closed at 135¼c. Exchange was steady.

In this market we heard of no sales of coin beyond a few small lots. Brokers buy at 134@134¼c, and sell at 135@135¼c.

The plans laid out by our city authorities to pay off the indebtedness to one of our national banks, certainly develops a great deal of versatility upon the part of the Finance Committee, and, we have no doubt, that out of the various projects which have been hatched by them, some one will be adopted, and the city will breathe freer, having liquidated a very small portion of the three or four millions which hangs over her. The plan which is now under consideration is probably the most gigantic one yet presented, and at the same time, is the one which our citizens, in the perversity of their natures, will most surely object to. It is, we learn, proposed to sell the stock of the city in the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad, amounting to $550,000, to the bank, provided 12½ on the dollar can be realized. In this way, $66,000 of the debt of $130,000 could be raised; but let us see what else we would be paying for this $66,000. This amount of stock, together with that held by members of the "ring," would give them the complete control of the road, which is one of most vital importance to Memphis. It will not only place the road out of the power of our people, but will give the purchasers control of 150,000 acres of land donated to the road, $300 000 of first mortgage bonds, $1,300,000 of State aid, as well as a claim against the General Government, amounting to $300,000, which will no doubt be paid at an early day. Our citizens will at once accord the "Finance Committee" their thanks for suggesting this easy mode of liquidating a small portion of their liabilities. It is certainly a wonderful exhibition of financial wisdom, and the authors of it should take rank with Law, Mires, Fisk, Vanderbilt and others.

The amount of the semi-annual dividends payable in New York to-day, on various classes of stocks and securities, is $18,462,073. The interest to be paid in gold at the United States Sub-Treasury was about seven millions. The State of Massachusetts pays the interest on its bonds in specie. The city of Boston pays interest in coin except on currency loans.

The New York Bulletin of the 29th ult. has some items of interest to our readers in connection with schemes now before Congress. It says the Southern movements have begun early. The Ohio and Chesapeake road—an enterprise which proposes to supply new links and add to the trunk line of a route from Norfolk, Va., to Cincinnati—is or will be before Congress for a subsidy. Mr. Pomeroy proposes a great route from Charleston, S. C., to Memphis or Little Rock. The Senator has a great interest in the Arkansas projects—or rather his brother-in-law has. Senator Spencer, of Alabama, presents a full-blown project, starting at Chattanooga, running through Alabama to Mobile, and thence to Louisiana, through that State to its western boundary. Senators Rice and McDonald, of Arkansas, are well up in the magnificent plans for making Arkansas "bloom and blossom like the rose" at the national expense. The Nisgara Ship Canal scheme, with its twelve million dollars of subsidy, has been haunting the corridors for some days past in the person of Horace H. Day, its ostensible projector and most indefatigable promoter. The "Commercial Steam Navigation" people are mustering strongly, in the hope of compelling Postmaster General Randall to do what they want, and to gain the six millions which he prevented them from pocketing last summer. Another ring is composed of Tennessee Radicals. I know not if the Governor is in it, but certainly some Republican Congressmen of that State are its earnest supporters. This, if successful, will net five million dollars. I believe this money is due the general Government for the payment of rolling stock and materials purchased of the Quartermaster's Department after the war closed. It may, perhaps, be a claim for services rendered during the war and claimed on account of "loyalty." One or the other certainly is. Besides there there are the Alta Vela claims, amounting to several millions, in which Judge Black and Gen. Butler are both interested as active or advising counsel.

COTTON.

This being a holiday in Liverpool, no dispatches were received from that port.

The New York market at the opening was unchanged in every respect. At noon the demand was moderate and prices firm, Uplands 26¾, Orleans 26¾c. At 3 p.m. the demand was good and prices tending upward, Low Middlings 26c, Uplands 26½c, Orleans, 27c, Good Middlings 27¾c. The closing dispatch read as follows: Demand good. Prices have advanced. Sales 1800 bales. Uplands, 26½@26¾c.

The New Orleans market at noon today was dull and unchanged, Middlings 25c, with sales of 500 bales.

The sales yesterday in this market were very good when we consider that it was a holiday. Several hundred bales changed hands upon a basis of 24½@24¾c for Middlings. To-day there was a lively inquiry manifested by buyers, and holders were firm, some of them not uncovering their tables, preferring to await Monday's market. The sales will not fall short of 2000 bales, of which we report the following lists:

TRADE.

Business houses were generally open on New Year's day, and some of them reported an active trade. To-day there was a moderately active demand, but the bad weather of last week has made the roads almost impassable, and very few country teams are in town. Orders by river and rail have fallen off since the holidays, but it is anticipated that the planting season will be an early one, and planters will soon begin to lay in their supplies. Our St. Louis exchanges are sanguine of the completion of the railroad from that city to Belmont this year, or before the ice can interfere with navigation next winter. Very much delay is now experienced by our merchants, some of whom bought goods in that market ten or twelve days ago which have not yet been received owing to the ice.

The attention of our own people is being directed to railroad matters, and by another year we hope to record rapid progress in more than one enterprise of this kind. Make Memphis accessible, and trade will follow as sure as night follows day.

With the old year we may record the death of the New Orleans and Memphis line of packets. There is no cotton going down stream, and without fair down trips these boats could not live.

The census returns of our city have very much astonished those who thought themselves well informed upon the subject. Few if any estimated our population at less than 50,000.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has made a decision of interest to distillers. The machinery in a distillery in New York having got out of repair, so as to require a suspension of business, notice was given to the Assessor, who gave permission for workmen to enter the establishment to make repairs. It was then discovered that there were in the distillery seven tubs of mash, worth, say seven thousand dollars, which, if the strict letter of the law were pursued, would have to be destroyed. Upon the presentation of the facts to the Commissioner he decided that where a suspension of business occurs by casualty or unforeseen circumstances, rendering a stoppage of business inevitable, the law makers did not intend that property should be sacrificed or destroyed, as would be required where the process of distillation had been kept up in wilful violation of the law.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant, and the mud dried up rapidly under the genial heat of the sun. The river at this point rises steadily. The swell in the past 24 hours amounted to 10 inches. The Arkansas and White rivers are both rising rapidly. The river hence to St. Louis is entirely clear of ice. The latest advices, however, from above will be found in our telegraphic columns.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Our levee yesterday was unusually active for a Sunday. Several steamers were loading and unloading.

The Mississippi passed down during the day. She put off 100 tons freight at this port, and Capt. Green expected to pick up something in the bends below. She had a good passenger trip. Among them were Mr. Robert Ainslie and bride, who go to the Crescent City.

There is considerable corn in the bends between this port and Cairo, but the weather has been so bad that the roads are impassable.

About all the freight now at Cairo has been engaged for the Mollie Able.

The Magenta, Capt. J. Frank Hicks, will be in port to leave on Wednesday for Vicksburg and New Orleans. John Sullivan is her clerk.

The opposition which has been going on in the White river trade has, we learn, been brought to an end. This result will be a matter of much interest to those living on White river as well as to the respective owners of the contending packets. The troubles now existing in Arkansas has cut off a large amount of trade and travel to White river, and while at one time three or even four boats could make money in the trade, at this time it is difficult to pay the expenses of two. By the new arrangement the Des Arc takes Tuesdays and the Mayflower Saturdays. The Des Arc will make all way landings as well as connect with the Little Rock train and with the Argos for all points on upper White river. Capt. John D. Elliott is in command and Joe Elliott with Matt Glass and Andy Granger are her popular clerks.

The W. S. Hays laid over until to-day. She leaves at 4 p.m. for Fort Smith and way points on the Arkansas. Capt. Bussely is master and Mr. Morton is clerk.

The Nick Longworth, Capt. Lew Kater, leaves to-day for New Orleans at 10 a.m. She is an elegant packet, and Capt. Lew is a favorite here. Eugene Bowers is her clerk.

The fine steamer Mountaineer, Capt. Malin, leaves at noon to-day for Cairo and St. Louis. She starts from the Packet Company's wharf boat, foot of Jefferson street. Monroe Cunningham is chief clerk, and will be found a clever officer.

The H. S. Turner is due to-day from St. Louis. She is running in the packet line.

The Dan Ab'e has been chartered, we learn, to run in the New Orleans and Vicksburg trade, and will leave on Tuesday. Billy Greene goes out as clerk, and will receive freight for her to-day at the foot of Union street.

The Silver Moon, with Ben Merrielees on the roof, backs out to day for Cairo, Louisville and Cincinnati. She is a good passenger packet, and her clerk, Mr. Hunter, is one of the best on the river.

The St. Francis, Capt. Tom Bowman, will positively leave to-morrow for all points on St. Francis river. Her shaft will be put in to-day. Sam Paine and Billy Clark are her clerks.

The Olive Branch and Virginia passed up about daylight yesterday, for St. Louis.

The Tempest came in with a good trip from Louisville. She was covered with plows. Capt. Shultz will back her out to day for Cairo and Louisville, and will make all way landings.

The gay United States mail packet Ozark, Capt. Rube Haynes, leaves promptly this evening for Little Rock and all way points on the Arkansas. She connects with Fort Smith packets, and offers superior accommodations for passengers. Invalids from the Hot Springs say that a trip with Jack Chambers is more beneficial than a month's sojourn at the Springs. Bob Shields is Chambers' assistant in the office.

The Natoma, Capt. Lee, will back out on Tuesday for Friar's Point and all way landings. Billy Fields and Sterling Whitehead do the honors.

Capt. Larry Harmstad, who has been ill for some days, is again about, but has lost ninety-seven pounds of solid flesh. He now makes a respectable appearance. Several reefs had to be taken in his garments.

From the officers of the Mountaineer we learn that there is no ice between this port and St. Louis to interfere in any way with navigation.

The following is a list of total losses of sternwheel steamers in the Missouri river since the spring of 1865: Nugget, Louisville, Cora, Bertrand, Gen. Grant, Ontario, Mariner, Princess, Helena, Amelia Poe, Carrie, E. O. Stanard, Nora, Marion, J. H. Troyer, Arabian, Bridgeport, Lilly, Amaranth and Gallatin. The Louisa and Leodora were burned. The following sidewheel boats were lost in the same time: Twilight, Waverly, Sam. Gaty and Mollie Dozier.

Capt. J. C. Dowty, formerly of the St. Nicholas, has chartered the Stonewall for the New Orleans and Shreveport trade.

The sinking of the Empire was probably the most remarkable accident which has ever happened to a steamboat on the western rivers. She was lying at the time in St. Catherine's Bend, above Ellis' Cliffs, when the bank caved, filling her forward guards with a mass of earth. A huge tree fell at the same time across her hurricane roof, breaking her in two and causing her to sink in a few moments.

The Wheeling and Pittsburg packet New State was sunk at Cox's Ripple, in the Ohio river, three miles below Steubenville, on Thursday night. As her lower deck is seven feet under water, and the river rising fast, she will prove a total loss. Value, $6000.

Capt. Scott, who built the steamer Lightwood at Portsmouth, is running his boat between Trenton and Camden, in Alabama, and has cleared about $5000 this season.

The new Arkansas river U. S. mail line steamer Clarksville, Capt. Reasoner, will leave Cincinnati on Wednesday next for this port.

The United States Mail Line between Louisville and Cincinnati has paid over $3000 000 for insurance since its organization, and has never received a cent by reason of it.

The Nashville Banner of the 1st says: The river is still rising very rapidly, with ten feet of water on the shoals. Weather cloudy, and threatening more rain.
